

A true mark of luxury

Luxury hospitality tastemaker Almanac, known for developing iconic hotels in landmark locations, has announced the first in a collection of luxury hotels scheduled to open in the summer of 2017 in Barcelona. Located on Gran Via de les Corts Catalanes, 619-621, the hotel will be comprised of 92 luxurious accommodations and has undergone a complete renovation over the last two years. In a prime location, the hotel is steps from Paseo de Gracia, where guests can find stylish shopping, restaurants, bars and museums. With world-class architecture and design featuring grey, beige and gold tones with accents of oak and walnut, antique mirrors, and marble from Ibiza – a stay at the Alamanac Barcelona is a true mark of luxury.
